New to Adelaides Best ... Artistic License Gallery & Studio

Artistic License Gallery & Studio is located in the vibrant art centre of North Adelaide. Offering an ever-changing array of art with a contemporary focus from established and emerging artists, Artistic License also has sculpture and textile based art on display.

Current Exhibiting artists and examples of their work are featured on www.artisticlicense.com.au.

With monthly art exhibitions and new works in the gallery, the choice is exceptionally impressive and a personal selection service is also available.

The Current Exhibition on display is "Surface Tension" featuring paintings by established artists of Joanne Villani and Jim Duncan. (samples below and at right)

Exhibition finishes June 12th

Assaggio Ristorante receives prestigious award.

Adelaides Best Member Assaggio Ristorante, of King William Road, Hyde Park, has been awarded the "Ospitalità Italiana" award (Italian Hospitality) by a panel of Italian experts in Rome, as part of a world wide campaign to promote true and authentic Italian cuisine.

This international project has been developed by Unioncamere (Association of Italian Chambers of Commerce [in Italy]) and supported by Isnart (National Italian Tourism Research Institute) and the network of Italian Chamber's of Commerce Abroad, in collaboration with the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Trade & Development & Ministry of Culture and Tourism. The judging criteria, although very rigid, guarantee an experience of a true Italian restaurant:

1) Italian speaking staff; 2) Italian style environment or furnishings; 3) menu's to be written in correct Italian; 4) 50% of the menu must represent the Italian culinary tradition; 5) detailed recipes of at least 5 dishes on the menu must be provided to the examining panel.

These were just a few of the criteria that Assaggio excelled in which led to the award.

For a truly authentic Fine Italian Dining Experience, you can't go past Assaggio.
